Room with a View: The Five-Star Presidential Suite that Overlooks Boston's Waterfront

The luxurious 4,800-square-foot suite at the Boston Harbor Hotel offers the ultimate private experience, exquisitely designed for the most discerning of guests visiting the heart of Boston. Outfitted with a state-of-the-art media room, private elevator, spacious living areas, expansive dining room, and a modern, full kitchen, the John Adams Presidential Suite, the city's now-most expensive hotel room, is a delightfully extravagant respite with extraordinary accommodations.

Perhaps the suite's most sensational feature is its 1,000-square-foot terrace with sweeping views of Boston's famous harbor. Guests can watch the boats glide while relaxing in stunning seating from the Savannah collection. Savannah Lounge Chairs and 3-Seat Sofas in Cirrus White with navy cushions provide a classic, stately atmosphere reflective of the Boston Harbor Hotel's sophisticated and quietly sophisticated style.

Through 20-foot floor-to-ceiling windows in the living room overlooking the terrace, guests of the John Adams Presidential Suite are provided with a spectacular panorama perspective of Boston's richly historic waterfront. A jewel of American luxury, the Boston Harbor Hotel was recognized as one of the World's Most Luxurious Hotels by Forbes Travel Guide.
