

JANUS et Cie®

BEYOND TOPIARY

Take in the Majesty of the Caribbean from Your Own Secluded Villa on a Private Beach

Off the northern coast of Antigua's main island, and only accessible by boat, the Oetker Collection's impressive Jumby Bay Resort is a true hideaway surrounded by pristine, clear waters. In addition to luxurious rooms and suites, the remarkable Jumby Bay Island is also home to Oetker's exclusive villas and private residences. One such haven is known as Pure Turquoise, an idyllic 6.2-acre property complete with a private beach, spectacular 82-foot infinity pool, and separate lodgings set up in a village-style arrangement.

Guests who are fortunate enough to reserve this exquisite private residence are treated to a private chef, personal villas designed with ocean views, spacious bedrooms, and sophisticated decor that enhances the property's enchanting atmosphere. A true paradise, Jumby Bay Pure Turquoise is outfitted with JANUS et Cie luxury outdoor furnishings including Zeya, Arbor, Wing and Quinta, each intricately woven in natural hues to complement the resort's natural surroundings.

An expansive pool gazebo features an extraordinary lounge area furnished with generously sized Zeya lounge chairs, sofas and ottomans, while Zeya armchairs and side chairs complete the dining area—a dramatic space that overlooks the crystal clear waters.

From star-lit skies to glistening waters, the Oetker Collection private residence is a true treasure of the Caribbean.